St. Anne Church: St. Clement Parish

St. Anne Church, consecrated in 1873, was designed by Québec architect Joseph-Pierre-Michel Lecourt (1824-1913), in the traditional style of small country parish churches in Québec. It quickly established itself as the centre of religious, social and political life of the Lower Town East Francophone community. Since June 2012, St. Anne Church has been the new home of St. Clement Parish, the first Roman Catholic parish in the world (1997) to be established after Vatican II to meet the needs of the faithful attached to the former liturgical traditions of the Roman rite.

Église Sainte-Anne: Paroisse Saint-Clément

Érigée en 1873 selon les plans de l'architecte québécois Joseph-Pierre-Michel Lecourt (1824-1913) dans le style traditionnel des petites églises paroissiales bâties en milieu rural au Québec, l'église Sainte-Anne s'est rapidement établie comme centre nerveux de la vie religieuse, sociale et politique de la communauté francophone de la Basse-Ville Est. Depuis juin 2012, Sainte-Anne connaît un nouvel essor avec l'arrivée de la paroisse Saint-Clément, première au monde à être fondée (1997) après Vatican II afin de desservir les fidèles attachés au rite tridentin.
